Public Comments

Bob reports continuing work on bone sorting and cleaning out files. The Indian River Anthropological Society might shut down temporarily due to a decline in membership. This will be determined at their January meeting.

Archivist Report

Michael Boonstra reported the continuation of work on the 50th Brevard County Library System celebration for next year, as well as other on-going research projects. He shared an article published with the help on the department on Field Manor in this month's Space Coast Living. The department has also provided research on historical political women in Brevard, local archaeology as well as requests from various county and municipal departments.

New Business

Michael Boonstra announced the resignation of Historical Commissioners Dr. Ben Brotemarkle and Molly Thomas for the Commission.

Old Business

Michael Boonstra reported on the Indian River Journal. He has received the permission to print the IRJ and will proceed with that.

Agenda items regarding the Dennis Sawyer Marker dedication and Heritage Park updates have been tabled until there is a quorum with Roz Foster present.

Commissioners' Reports

None.

The next meeting will be held January 25, 2022 at Catherine Schweinsberg Rood Central Library, Second Floor. Meeting was adjourned at 7:30 pm.
