Director's Report

We are celebrating Black History Month. We have displays and don't forget to get your brochure stamped so that you have a chance to win one of our two door prizes. Beth's book club will meet on Thursday, March 3 at 1:30 PM. The book to be discussed is Chocolat by Joanne Harris. Cook the Book Club is Thursday, March 17 at 6:00 PM. This month you can choose recipes from The Best of Irish Country Cooking by Nuala Cullen or bring something green. We are also continuing with our Coloring Club, Hooks and Needles Club and our Basic Computer Instruction classes.

Marshall Frank is appearing on Thursday, March 10 at 6:30 PM. Marshall Frank dedicated more than thirty years as a law enforcement officer, climbing the ranks from Police Officer to Police Captain in Miami-Dade County. Mr. Frank has authored 15 books in addition to numerous articles for newspapers and magazines. He will speak about how he became to be a writer and the art of writing and publishing. His fiction titles include: Dire Straits, and Beyond the Call along with nonfictions titles: So, You Want to Write A Book and From Violins to Violence: A Memoir.

It is kindness month. Youth Services will be giving out kindness kits from PBS. They are continuing with their story time, take home crafts and building club. They will also be doing a special craft for St. Patrick's Day on March 9th at 3:00 PM. Building Block Shop is Wednesday, March 16 at 3:00 PM.
